Befriending Your Computer, You Can Do It.

The SHARE Club computer learning center offers a 2 1/2 hour class each week for 4 weeks on teaching you the basics.

Cost is $40 per person. Computer classes are for SHARE Club members only.

For the complete beginner, you will be introduced to Personal Computer basics and to the “language” of computers – what is hardware, what is software, and other PC terminology, followed by hands on experience on the computer.

Our classes are designed for seniors who are beginner computer users. Our instructors create an atmosphere of fun and learning. Students have fun, and learn to enjoy their home computers.

Registration for our computer classes are on a first come, first serve basis. After we receive your registration we will put you in the first available class. We offer 9 sessions a year with classes available Monday through Friday either 9 a.m. to 11:30 am or 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Call 772-6758 for a list of other courses.

TO REGISTER FOR THE PROGRAM PLEASE SEND THE REGISTRATION FORM BELOW WITH YOUR CHECK FOR $40 TO:

A Message From Teresa

God bless America. Our thoughts and prayers go out to our family members that may be involved in this war. A national event makes us realize what a small world we live in. Lee Memorial Health System has 50 employees that have a family member in the military who have been deployed to Iraq. Lee Memorial has asked all of us to support these employees with thoughts and prayers. There will also be a special bake sale with the money raised going directly to the employees of LMHS who have family members in the military. The money raised will purchase phone cards for the uniformed family members, as well as assistance with their utility bills. I am encouraging all SHARE Club members to bake something and bring it in to our hospitals on May 22nd. They will go on sale May 23rd from 6 a.m. until the items are sold out.

Many of you know SHARE Club founder, Sue Maxwell. One of her sons is deployed in Korea. Her assistant Virginia, has family directly involved in the war. She sent me this note on April 9th: “I need a favor from all of you. My nephew, Todd, is being deployed to Iraq tomorrow. He is a Sergeant in the U.S. Army and is stationed at Fort Carson, Colorado Springs. He will be assigned to a Combat Surgical Hospital (CSH) inside Iraq. It is a 144-bed facility and is a fully functioning hospital. He is a x-ray technician and also a medic. He states it will be like a ‘M.A.S.H. Unit.’ They will be setting up the hospital themselves when they get to Iraq.

“Todd is a terrific young man; he is 28 years old and is married. He has been in the Army almost six (6) years. We are very proud of him.

“I would appreciate any prayers that you can offer up for my nephew and all the other young men and women of our Armed Forces. They are truly my heroes.”

I hope many of you will support our family by either baking something or by coming in and purchasing some baked goods. For more information on the bake sale for our military families please call 772-6298. Each hospital will also have a display with pictures of our Heroes.

Pontifications to Ponder

When a young person looks to you for understanding and information I hope you teach them all life has given you, for our society truly needs to be reminded about the value of Aging. Many of you have life experiences that some of us will never have the opportunity to experience, so reach out and share your life with others.
Diversification Can Be A Life Saver

Edward Noble was one of those people who understood that variety is the spice of life. In 1913, he approached Clarence Crane, the inventor of the peppermint Life Saver, with the idea of producing the candy in a variety of flavors. Crane didn’t want any part of this plan, so he sold Noble all rights to the candy for $2,900.

Today, Life Savers is a billion-dollar business and the reason Noble became owner of it – and not Crane – was because he knew the value of diversification. He didn’t base his success on the sales of just one flavor of candy. He knew that by offering a variety of flavors, he could appeal to more people. At the same time, he protected his business should any one flavor fall from grace with the public.

Like Edward Noble, smart investors understand the value of variety. They know that variety is the foundation of a good investment plan. Whether you call it diversification, asset allocation, or simply “not putting all your eggs in one basket,” the benefits of spreading your dollars among a variety of investments cannot be overstated.

One of the main benefits of choosing a variety of investments is that you have some protection should one of those investments experience a downturn. No single investment performs well under all conditions. In fact, different types of investments sometimes go in opposite directions. For example, when the stock market declines, bonds generally perform well and vice versa. Owning both types of investments will benefit you in nearly any economic environment.

Diversification also protects against loss of purchasing power. Having all your money in fixed-income investments, such as bonds and CDs, will not allow you to keep up with inflation. Why is this important? Consider for a moment what has happened to the price of bread over the past 50 years. $1 would buy: in 1950 Nearly five loaves of bread (Bread cost 22 cents per loaf.); 1970 Three loaves of bread (Bread cost 33 cents per loaf.); 1990 One loaf of bread (Bread cost 89 cents per loaf.); 2002 Not even one loaf of many brands of bread.

So, although you usually know exactly how much a fixed-income investment will return at maturity, what you don’t know is how much purchasing power that money will retain. Placing a portion of your assets in growth investments, however, has historically allowed you to outpace inflation.

Another benefit of diversification is that it offers the potential for better returns.

For example, with growth and growth-and-income investments, such as stocks and stock mutual funds, many investors concentrate too much of their money in companies that are familiar, such as consumer goods and utilities. Others lean too heavily on what’s hot, like technology stocks. Stocks and stock mutual funds should represent a variety of companies and industries. Diversifying this way could protect you from negative events in any one company or industry.

You can also diversify the fixed-income portion of your portfolio. The specific mix of investments that’s right for you depends on you needs for safety and return. Ask a professional to review your investments to make sure they’re adequately diversified. The few minutes you spend evaluating your portfolio can be a priceless investment. As Edward Noble discovered, diversification can be a life saver.

For more information please plan to attend the Edward Jones Seminar titled “Smart Couples Finish Rich” presented by Paula Kaminski, at Lee Memorial Hospital on June 17th at 9 am. Call 772-6765 to register.
Benefit Check-Ups

Many of you may be eligible for various state and federal programs and services. A new program is available; the National Council on Aging brings you an on-line program called Benefits Check-Up. I have previewed the site and believe this may benefit many SHARE Club members. Once on their web site, you enter your financial and medical information including current prescriptions. What I like best is that no personal identifying information is required. BenefitsCheckUP prepares a report identifying public and private benefits programs for you to consider. Many of these programs provide financial, health, pharmaceutical, informational, and supportive services. For your convenience, this report includes program details such as: program descriptions, local contact information where questions can be answered and/or applications can be completed, and a listing of necessary documentation to aid in the application process. SHARE Club would like to invite those without computers to come to our computer labs. With the help of our volunteers, you fill out the questionnaires on the computer and print the report for you to take home with you. Those of you with computers you can go to www.BenefitsCheckup.org. If you are interested in receiving this very detailed report that may help you save money call 772-6765 to schedule an appointment with our staff.

“LIFE REVIEW: BECOMING THE PERSON YOU WERE MEANT TO BE.”

by Harry R. Moody

THURSDAY, JUNE 12TH, 1 PM AT LEE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL AUDITORIUM,

Scripture, myths and fairy tales point to midlife as a time of transition: an opportunity for review our lives and gain deeper understanding of how we can grow in years to come. This workshop offers an experience of spiritual autobiography both personal and analytical. Class includes slides of Rembrandt’s self-portraits and segments from films such as “It’s a Wonderful Life,” “Wild Strawberries,” “Ground Hog Day” and “Peggy Sue Got Married.”

Call 772-6765 to register for this program. You will not want to miss this very informative and enjoyable speaker. Refreshments provided.

Harry R. Moody is currently Director of the Institute for Human Values in Aging, affiliated with the Brookdale Center on Aging of Hunter College.

Dr. Moody is the author of over 80 scholarly articles, as well as a number of books. His most recent book, The Five Stages of the Soul, was published by Doubleday Anchor Books (1997) and has been translated into seven languages worldwide.

A graduate of Yale (1967) and a Ph.D. in philosophy from Columbia University (1973), Dr. Moody taught philosophy at Columbia, Hunter College, New York University, and the University of California at Santa Cruz. From 1999 to 2001 he served as National Program Director of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation’s Faith in Action and, from 1992 to 1999, was Executive Director of the Brookdale Center at Hunter College. Before coming to Hunter, he served as Administrator of Continuing Education Programs for the Citicorp Foundation and later as Co-Director of the National Aging Policy Center of the National Council on Aging in Washington, DC.

Harry Moody is known nationally for his work in older adult education and is currently Chairman of the Board of Elderhostel.

You can also see Dr. Moody and many other experts at the 2003 Improving Geriatric Care Through Innovation Conference. Cost is $40 for caregivers and $85 for health care professionals wishing to obtain credits. Go to www.LeeMemorial.org/oas or call 334-5634 for more information.

With Compliments

TO WHO IT MAY CONCERN,

I have just returned home from a 6-week stay at HealthPark Care Center and want to say ‘Thank You,’ for the daily newspaper. I am a thirty five-year volunteer and a member of SHARE Club for over 15 years. I have had use of your paper before but never for so long a period. It really helped, as the days were long as I had broken my leg and could not get about. Thank you so much for that service. Sincerely, A SHARE Club member”

Planned Giving – The Charitable Remainder Trust

By Attorney Joseph D. Zaks, LMHS Foundation Treasurer

Planned giving can take on many forms. It may be something as simple as a bequest in your Will. Planned giving may also be a way of increasing your lifetime income while making a significant gift to the Lee Memorial Health System Foundation. This type of planned giving could make use of a charitable remainder trust.

In the most common scenario, an individual will fund an irrevocable trust with a block of highly appreciated low-basis stock. The stock is usually not diversified and, therefore, subject to substantial risk in a volatile market.

The stock is transferred to the trustee of the irrevocable trust. The trustee then sells the stock and invests in a diverse portfolio, therefore, lending some stability to the investment portfolio. No tax is due on the sale of the stock. When the trust was created, its creator (called a “grantor”) would reserve a stream of income from the trust for his or her lifetime and perhaps the lifetime of his or her spouse. At the end of their lifetimes, the trustee will pay the remaining balance of the trust assets to the Foundation. Let’s look at a specific example.

Mr. I.M. Generous owns $2,000,000 of Widget stock. Widget is currently paying a 1.7% dividend. Therefore, Mr. Generous is currently receiving $34,000 annually less about $14,000 in taxes or $20,000 net from this holding. As Widget stock is very volatile, Mr. Generous is not comfortable with the return, given the large amount of risk. Mr. Generous contributes the $2,000,000 to a charitable remainder trust. He has his attorney reserve a 5.5% return from the trust for the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Generous. The trustee immediately sells the $2,000,000 of Widget stock and buys a diversified portfolio of stocks and bonds.

The result of this planned giving decision is as follows.

Mr. and Mrs. Generous receive $110,000 for the balance of their lifetimes. As much of this distribution is capital gains, a much smaller tax bite will be taken and, during the initial five years of the trust’s life, there may be no tax at all on this income, given that a charitable deduction in excess of $500,000 (for the amount eventually passing to the Foundation) will be enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. I.M. Generous.

As you can see, planned giving can truly be a win-win idea for you and Lee Memorial Health System Foundation. Contact the Foundation at (239) 437-1840 for more information.
